ABOUT TRASMARES

Marine ecosystems are an essential component of the Earth: a source of biodiversity, food and life; as well as the most biologically diverse. Yet they are undervalued and probably the least understood.

of plurilingualism/pluriculturalism.

TEACUP aims at creating a wide awareness basis for the importance of the plurilingual and pluricultural approach in FL (teacher) education among multipliers who have an impact on the shaping of FL teaching paradigms. TEACUP will attempt to address as many multipliers as possible potentially interested in the topic through the use of online communication channels, social media, conferences and workshops, online platforms, such as eTwinning and EPALE, where TEACUP will upload the finalized modules.
