Launched on 7 December 2017, 2018 is the European Year of Cultural Heritage. Cultural heritage surrounds us in Europe's towns and cities, natural landscapes and archaeological sites. It is not only found in literature, art and objects, but also in the crafts we learn from our ancestors, the stories we tell to our children, the food we enjoy in company and the films we watch and recognise ourselves in. To acknowledge the importance of knowing and protecting our cultural heritage is instrumental in the preservation of a shared European culture and in the shaping of a European sense of belonging. Thus the importance of approaching this celebration from the perspective of adult education, which is the main objective of this TCA.
